An Attempted Suicide

An attempt was made by William Lemley, a colored man, to commit suicide at his home, 1037 O street. He had been his home, 1037 O street. He had been despondent for some time and thought that the most appropriate way in which he could open the year 1891 would be to take a dose of laudanum and die. While in a semi-unconscious condition he was walked around by two police officers, and Dr. Kolb administered an antidote. The would-be suicide will survive.

Theatrical Troupe at a Banquet. The banquet last night to the members of Williams and Orr's Meteors, tendered of Williams and Orr's Meteors, tendered by Manager James E. Orr, proved most enjoyable. Professor Pestoriand orchestra were invited guests, and contributed to-ward the festivities, which included spe-cialties by Lawler and Thornton and mu-sical Latina. Mr. William P. Frai, who was in charge in the absence of Manager Orr, deserves credit for the handsome manner in which he entertained the guests.

Rearing Ber re the Commissioners. The Commissioners held a meeting this vening to consider any objections that might be made against the proposed ex-tension of the Washington and Chesa-peake Railroad Company, which covers the following route: Beginning at the southeast boundary line of the District of Columbia to a point on the easterly shore of the Anacostia or Eastern branch of the Potomac River south of the northeast boundary line of the District of Columbia and north of Glesboro Point; also to cross the Eastern branch by means of a bridge to be constructed north of the Anacostia or Navy Yard Bridge, thence in the city of Washington, along and across neces-sary streets, avenues and reservations to a terminal point or place therein practicable for said company and most convenient for public business and travel.

A Brutal New Year's Fight.

A short but bloody prize-light took place early yesterday morning at the Virginia early yesterday morning at the Virginia end of the Long Bridge between two negroes, Holcomb and Brooke. After considerable difficulty a collection was taken up among the variegated lovers of the manly sport who had assembled on the ring side, to the number of 175, black and white. Twenty dollars was realized by the collectors, which went to form a purse for the winner.

Brooke started in to knock out his adversary, which he did very successfully after 10 minutes fighting, in which Holcomb did not have a show, and after the four a round refused to fight any longer. The defeated man was punished severely.

A Well-Known Character Dead.

Thomas Tolliver's body is at the morgu n New Jersey avenue. For a number o on New Jersey avenue. For a number of years he has been a guide at the Capitol and could give abundance of information to those who happened to come under his charge. He was, however, addicted to hard drinking, and would occasionally go off on prolonged sprees. Last night a police officer found Tom lying at the base of the Garfield monument. At first he was supposed to be in a drunken stupor. After being taken to the station it was found that he was dead. Only a short time before he was found by the policeman Tolliver was seen drinking in a neighboring saloon.

SECRETARY BLAINE'S HOUSE BURNED. The Handsome Residence on Daponi

Yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock the handsome mansion of Secretary Blaine on Dupont Circle, occupied by Mr. L. Z. Leiter of Chicago, was discovered to be on fire. Policemen Hawkins and Hook first discovered the fire and turned in the alarm, which quickly brought out the fire department.

fire department.

It was soon seen that without speedy work the fire would prove a disastrous one, and a general alarm was sent in. The entire attention of the department was given to the upper floors, where the fire was raging with considerable violenes, while the servants and others removed valuables to places of safety across the street.

valuables to places of safety across the street.

The firemen did good work and by 12:20 the last spark was out, but the splendid house was left in a deplorable condition. The rear-stairway was a mass of charred timbers while the cupola seemed about to full. Everything in the house was more or less damaged by the heat and water.

The damages to the house is estimated at $15,000, and to the furniture and other centents about the same amount. The house was built by Mr. Blaine about twelve years ago, and was occupied by his family while he was Secretary of State under the the Garfield administration. Mr. Blaine leased it, with some of the furniture, to Mr. Leiter, at $1,300 per annum. Mr. Blaine has insurance on the property, while Mr. Leiter has none.

The cause of the fire is unknown, but is attributed to the heating pipes. A number of elegant entertainments were to have been given by the Leiters during the season.
